Update

1 0:01:24 WORLD EVENTS

If you're paying attention to world events, there's a lot going on and it's difficult to get a grasp on what's happening. There appear to be very positive things, and the exact polar opposite at the same time. It's very important to remain the 'observer' if and when you can, to clearly see what is unfolding in front of us.

2 0:02:33 NIRIBU

On a positive scale, Niribu/Planet X is still on a holding pattern.

I have some information. One of the Anunnaki bloodlines is very much involved in much of the dark energy occurring here on the planet. I've been told a few days ago that the Anunnaki themselves, the Niribuans are very upset about this bloodline and the shenanigans they have been up to here. It will be interesting to see if this bloodline vanishes or is called to the table for what they've been doing. Much of what has been going on in the background has been forced to the forefront for everyone to see.

I am getting a lot of flack about talking about Niribu. I want to let you know up front before the bashing starts, the problems that come with this kind of work. I absolutely stand by all the information I've given to you because I know it to be true. One of the speakers in particular says Niribu doesn't exist at all and goes by a single acronym. I'm not sure whose side he's on. Also I heard another say it was destroyed in 2013. That's not true either.

3 0:05:40 PREPARE YOURSELF FOR CHANGE

We have to prepare ourselves for tremendous change. If you are not paying attention, you are not witnessing the change in global politics and religions - especially on the surface. Also, the changes under the planet, the volcanoes, earthquakes and bizarre weather all over the planet that is not being talked about.

To understand what is happening on the surface and the appearance of people really losing it (i.e. snapping, the explosion of anger by so many globally), it's important to understand the frequency of the planet is rising. It's called the Schuman resonance.

It's happening not just because of the consciousness of the planet, but because the frequency emanating from black holes is rising. At the same time, as if that were not enough, our entire solar system is moving across the galactic plane, which is surrounded by a field of plasma energy. This is basically electricity and is of a very high frequency too. We have all these elements combining together. So people who are not grounded and spiritually centred, with bodies that are not healthy or who don't meditate, have no way to channel or move this energy through their physical bodies. They are sort of shorting out, and the energy is building and they are exploding with emotion. Some of that is emotion held in the body, disease held in the body, past and present life energy. They are just exploding because they don't know what to do with the energy. We are going to see more of this unfortunately.

It's important to bless everyone involved and to continue to create a field of positive energy for humanity and the planet. It's imperative because we are the ground. This was the reason the Patal fell through time to come here. It was so we could hold the frequency of grounding of love and give the sense of purpose and intent for the creation of humanity to evolve through physical form through 3rd density into 4th and 5th to make this transition.

So those who know or are awakening, welcome to the drama that is planet earth. It's important to be the observer and to ground and hold the frequency of compassion and love, patience, and calmness for humanity. As things start ricocheting and the emotions slam back and forth, it is important that there is grounding centre point so that the energy eventually finds its medium and there is us holding the frequency of calmness. This is what many of us came here to do because there's a big scenario being played out here.

4 0:11:15 FREEDOM & RISING SCHUMAN RESONANCE

In the older notes, where I'd talked about how Mornay and Thorsayus had said there were 22 star systems in the same predicament as us. 19 of those star systems are now free. The yoke of the deception and slavery (the negative force) is no longer there.

There are 3 that are pending freedom. One of them is us. I don't know where we are in the 3, but the word 'pending' is what I'm holding on to. There's a lot of movement.

If you are paying attention, there's a lot of new world order activity going on. This is to be expected. When they get cornered, they lash out against humanity because basically they are weak. If they weren't weak, they wouldn't hide in the shadows and lash out. You are hearing about all these draconian laws and declarations of war to create more fear and stress on a humanity that is burdened already by so much stress and weight of frequency changes on the planet.

Now the Schuman resonance was between 7-8 for thousands of years. It jumped to 14. It's now over 30. I've heard 36, but I've confirmed over 30. It's a staggering rise in frequency. For those holding the light and frequency for the others to catch up, we are literally going to be forced to evolve and jump dimensions. What that looks like, I don't know. I don't think it's been done a lot, if ever in our universe. But that is what is happening.

5 0:14:33 RE-BOOT OF THE FINANCIAL SYSTEM

Also, in previous notes, I talked about how many people went back in time to write a terrible wrong. This had to do with it having played out once before and gone wrong. There was a reboot. Star systems went back in time (yes they can time travel), to do things differently.

Here on earth, the changing of the financial system wasn't even a consideration last time. It has been added to the reboot. It is a significant change not only for humanity, but also for the extra-terrestrial to include that and come to terms with what that system is as none of them use it. Much to their credit, they did institute this, and they are learning this as well. I thought it was noteworthy to mention.

6 0:11:15 ACCESS TO YOUR MULTI-DIMENSIONAL KNOWLEDGE

Those of you who are Patal (and again what I'm referring to are beings who fell back through time to third density) to hold the frequency here, understand that even as you are making changes here and holding the frequency, you are also holding it on 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th as well, because you are multi-dimensional beings.

As an analogy, there's a rod or beam of light that is directed through time to hold the light here. You have access to that knowledge and all that you are, to decisions you have made. You still have the ability to call in that information. The idea that you're stuck here is literally a belief system. Eventually if you believe you have access, your subconscious will relinquish and you will be able to tap into that as well.

(a) Meditation

In meditating, listening to the silence within the silence. If you can get into the space where you can see yourself lifting outside of the body and the totality of your being i.e. orb of light. When you know you're in that space, you have the ability to literally create what you want in this 3rd density from there. All you have to do is clarify with your intention what you want in your physical life, whether it is abundance, romance, love, a new car, a home, and world travel, whatever it is.

When you are in your spiritual zone, if you focus your intent, you will manifest it so fast it will blow your mind. Because your subconscious is out of the way, it isn't telling you that you can't have it and that it's impossible.

There is no impossible. When you know you're in that space, intend what you want and allow yourself to go to that new car (or whatever you want). Once you see it, you see yourself in it and at your house where you are meditating.

(b) Dream

The other trick is for those who are dreamers and don't always get into vada when they meditate, but their dreams are incredibly lucid. They are travellers when they dream. They go to see friends, classes, and other people to learn about what is happening here. If you can take a few moments when you're out of your body and in the dream, you can do exactly the same thing. Travel to what it is you want, intend what you want. Thorsayus once said that physical reality is a mirror of spiritual intention. We need to remember that we are creating this. This is a reflection of what is going on inside and it's important to believe and know that you are here in 3rd density, 4th, 5th, 6th, etc. etc. But if you can go in vada. If you can travel in your dreamtime. You can call upon guides and counsellors that know you and help you and get information about who you are and have been and what your original intention is for being here.

This is important because things are going to get really strange here. It's important to have your spiritual centre grounded and that you know you are a spiritual being and not trapped in physical form. Therefore, you don't need to be afraid. Because we are going to get the 'full court press' of fear because they simply won't change their mind about whom they are. It's imperative that we do this. Remember you are creating your hologram. If you can get into those places, you can bypass time and manifest what you want. You can call these things forth. There is no impossible. It doesn't exist out there. I have been working with this myself and now seeing results.

7 0:25:33 SCIENTIFIC WORLD IS TWEAKING OUR DNA

Another reason for this is that the scientific world and the pharmaceutical companies have been tweaking our DNA through chemicals and vaccines. Now they're openly talking about manipulating the genome.

Remember you are a spiritual being as a lot of this is going to be overwhelming, in the sense that we are going to be listening to this ridiculous gibberish regarding why they have to do certain things and that this is a good thing. But it is really just another manipulation and way to control and subdue humanity. We can't buy into it. The idea of a spiritual life is to be free. It isn't to be a slave and entrapped in physicality. Nowhere is that a part of the definition of a spiritual life. That is a term known as 'tyranny'. I can tell you that those who are multi-dimensional, that was not the agenda at all.

In changing your reality by going to vada and the dream state... by changing your frequency there, you will automatically change your frequency here.

So we are reinforcing the creative change that the universe has created for everyone, and you individually are taking responsibility for the change. It's not where you are going to be carried by the wave. Use the frequency to move where you want to go.

If you have a goal and intention of what you want, that wave will take you where you want. In the process you empower those who touch you in your hologram, i.e. family, work colleagues. Those people will experience the shift in frequency even if they are a brick. This is about holding the frequency and stay in the space, because we are about to get the full court press.

8 0:30:04 HOLDING THE JOY & LIGHT FOR OTHERS

Those holding the negative force (the regressives) have had optimum amount of time to shift their frequency/vibration and they haven't done that. There is going to be a clashing of ideology and philosophy and it's literally right in front of us that these things will occur. I implore you to remember not to buy into the drama and feed the negative field with fear. There are enough people who have bought into that and disempowered themselves and others. We must hold the frequency of love. That's what's important.

For those around you who are showing extremes of emotions, it's important to remain calm. You don't have to say anything or coach if you don't want. Just listen and remain grounded and talk in a gentle loving manner to disperse the energy. The body is a radio antenna and generator of frequency. But the energy is getting so high so fast; they don't know how to process it because they don't have a spiritual centre or emotional blocks or ailments. This could make things a lot worse, speed up disease, cause complications, 'schiz out', become extreme and irrational. It's this frequency.

Then we have the regressives feeding this frequency with fear. But understand that the shadows they've been hiding in are now being illuminated, and more and more we will be able to see what's been going on in the background.

Just what we've found in the last five years regarding the archons and reptilians and extra-terrestrials of all shapes and sizes and of both intentions. Planetary and galactic archaeology... Discoveries of what's on other planets... Even the archaeology on the planet, and a stunning amount of information that has been uncovered about the Egyptian artefacts in the Grand Canyon... Photographs have been released quietly in the background. The knowledge is coming out to inform us that we are much more than what we know. That we play an amazing role in the interaction with other star systems, some of which are already here and walking the planet as we speak. There are boots on the ground. They've been here for some time. In fact, you're one of the boots on the ground too.

As far as the religions, theologies and regressives go, whenever they get cornered, they start stirring the religious pot with 'my god's better than your god'. You would think humanity would have figured this out by now. All the candles are now lit. It's imperative that we hold love and calmness and spiritual grounding here in light.

What I'm asking is that you put more intention into creating your own joy and happiness. There's no reason why you can't create your holograph of joy and hold the light for others to empower themselves through your frequency.

Questions & Answers

- 1 0:38:50 Q I hear the Anunnaki Niribu story is not true.
- A You have your own free will. I stand by what I've been told.
- 2 0:39:30 Q Is your back better? And how can we financially help and support your work?
- A I do not. I will have to research when I can. We have talked in the past for 20 years regarding different timelines created with the misuse of alien technology such as the Montauk chair.
- The Nazi's played some games with time. The British changed some things playing with the technology and CERN. So timelines were created going in different directions and then the timelines were merged into one. But what has happened is that the memory of the people experiencing changed with the memories. But spiritually, you are always connected to your other dimensional selves.
- As the timelines merged, you brought the memories in with you causing a conflict. The A's also have said that they went back in time to correct something that went wrong, which means that before may be different to how it is now. We could spend a lot of time talking about that.

- 3 0:41:30 Q Do you know what the Mandela effect is? Some people remember Mandela dying in the 90's, other a few years ago. Basically people have different memories of what happened in the past. There are different explanations for this, including messing around with history on the internet and timelines.
- A I do not. I will have to research when I can. We have talked in the past for 20 years regarding different timelines created with the misuse of alien technology such as the Montauk chair.

- 4 0:46:50 Q Are you familiar with the Blue Sphere Alliance?
- A I've heard of it and I believe it's connected with another contactee. I don't know anything about the blue alliance. But I have questions based on things I've heard. I'm not in a position to comment on it or ask Mornay. He may call it something else, if it is even real.
- 5 0:48:09 Q My son is a contactee, but I'm not sure if the good or bad side contacts him. How would I know?
- A You have my email. Send me your phone number. Let's have that conversation.
- 6 0:48:50 Q Are they cloning important people? Can they move the consciousness into the clone? What is the difference between a clone and a twin?
- A They've been doing that for quite some time actually, and my understanding is that they don't actually move the soul. The aliens have that ability, but they've not given that to humans.
- Basically, inside the brain, it's a microprocessor. They download a mirror copy of the brain without the soul. So it acts with the same mannerisms and speaks the same. But it's not the same being. Physically there are some changes and they are not exact replicas.

I don't know if the souls are being captured or freed. It's my understanding they were not allowed to capture any more souls. But the dark side don't play by the rules and they are constantly changing the game to get one upon everyone else. That's a really good question. It's been going on for quite some time.

7 0:50:27 Q When a holograph is placed in your brain and you awaken within it, you actually think you're in a cave or somewhere. That part of your apartment has been moved into it. But the cave will disappear if you happen to walk through one of the people there. How do you get rid of the holograph?

A Your experience is different from mine. I'm not in a cave. I'm free in the universe somewhere surrounded by galaxies, stars and suns, and an immense amount of love. Once I know I'm in a holograph, I own my holograph. It doesn't belong to anyone else. So why would you want to get rid of it?

Walk out of the cave. Go or think you're somewhere else and you will be there. Don't be afraid of it. You don't have to get rid of the holograph. Own it. Declare it as yours and change it to what you want.

8 0:52:20 Q Any updates on what the hold up is concerning releasing the people who are being tortured day and night by regressives and cabal with no touch technology?

A I wish I had an answer for that. I don't know what the delay is and why it's still recurring. It's a regret that this is happening. It needs to stop. It's all bullshit. I don't have that answer. I wish I did. I don't know why it's being allowed to continue.

Maybe the only way to stop it is all out war. That won't help anything. I don't know.

9 0:53:40 Q According to some researchers, the oldest civilisations discovered on the planet belonged to melanated black and brown people. Most Caucasian civilisations do not pre-date melanated civilisations such as the Olmec's of South America. Why is this not mentioned in the exopolitics discourse?

A You may be surprised to know that they have discovered another civilisation in South America, along with physical remains that go back 25 million years, and that's not the Olmecs.

Earth is quite the history and it has been an outpost for space-faring nations forever i.e. a billion years. We're going to find older civilisations than even that on the planet. Some were us. Many were not. Many stayed here, took advantage and left genetically altered DNA of life forms here.

They enjoyed the beauty of earth at the time and prehistoric animals and moved on. Others created colonies and through earth shifts, disasters died or were unable to leave the planet. Earth has a remarkable history. The Olmecs aren't even close.

10 0:56:15 Q Do you think there is still a chance the earth will tilt due to Planet X? Will this mean tidal waves washing inland?

A It is my sincere hope that based on the talks on helping earth there won't be a pole shift. It's possible that a slight pole shift is supposed to occur. It is interesting that many military bases are moving their equipment inland away from the shore. It could be just in case, or because of an event.

With Niribu, no one knows what is going on here on the surface, but outside, there's constant communication with the galactic forces. If the dark side have their way, they will use it to get rid of us 'useless eaters' as they say. But based on their desperation, I feel they have already lost the war and they are playing the last bits out.

If there's a pole shift, I believe humanity will be given time to move inland if it's supposed to occur.

11 0:59:10 Q It's about Dulce. What goes on at Dulce?

A What did you do at Dulce? It's such a negative field. Your worst nightmare multiplied by ten. An absolute disregard for any type of humanity, not only by humans but also by extra-terrestrials. All in the guise of discovering military technology. Sanctioned by scientists.

12 1:00:05 Q I've heard about an energetic event that might happen that could raise the consciousness of many people around the world in just a few days. When it happens, what effects will that have on the plans of the psychopaths for humanity?

A If they are losing it now, I can only imagine their fuzzy little heads will pop over a 3-day period. I'm not aware of such an event. It could speed things up. They could explode and be out of the way. It's difficult to say.

What will it do to humanity as a whole? So many are struggling. They are exasperated, hyper, and moody. They have swings of emotions. They think they need to take pharmaceutical drugs when spiritual energy is entering their life and they're not getting guidance on how to process and absorb it in any way shape or form. I hope it doesn't happen that way. I don't know that humanity would be able to handle it well at this present time.

Just the stuff that I've seen in the last couple of weeks, this morning here at the library waiting for it to open, this guy went off at a little old lady for no reason whatsoever. It's not ok. I've seen a lot of things like that. I digress.

13 1:03:55 Q Have the A's taught you any techniques to help you remember who you really are.

A I taught it to you earlier. Connect to you in your meditation or dream. Contact to other parts of you. I promise you will get the call. And you will know. When that happens, you will be so incredibly full of self-empowerment and blown away.

14 1:05:20 Q My cousin is meditating regularly, and has unlocked being able to see the future and predict certain things. How can she cope with this new consciousness in accepting this?

A The future is never set. It's in flux. What changes it, is people's ability to do something different. If tomorrow every news station on the planet said on Sept 1st the world will end. How many people would sit back and say ok, we are done. How many would do something different? The majority would do something different.

I don't know what she's coping with, but she's only seeing a probability. It can change, it can shift, and it's unlimited what those probabilities could be. She could turn it into a positive if she's not already. Turn those into positive events based on what she's seen.

What's her intention to see these things? There has to be a spiritual intent. Only she can ask. What does she want with this ability?

15 1:08:25 Q Alex wants to schedule a personal 1 on 1 Skype call and it would help finance you. Are you open to that kind of thing?

A Yes I'm open to it.

16 1:09:01 Q I feel we will be on the right track when Hilary is arrested. Can you see that happening?

A The criminals never arrest their own. I've no idea. I'm so displeased with both. It's not even a lesser of two evils this time. She should be. But will she be? I don't know. But she should be. It's even worse than we know – I'm sure of it.

17 1:10:00 Q What genes did they change with the N181 vaccine?

A I don't know.

18 1:10:25 Q Have the A's ever talked about the shape of the earth? Some say the earth is a fragment of Maldeck's destruction. I don't feel flat earthers or round earthers are right. Any insight into earth's shape? It would stand to reason that a fragment wouldn't be a perfect sphere. Or would it?

A The earth is not a perfect sphere. If it were, we wouldn't have oceans. It's more oval than anything else, but it's not flat like a frying pan. And for those that think it is, I'm sorry to burst your bubble. What would you think if earth was in fact Maldeck?

19 1:11:51 Q Are the AI and Satanism 2 faces of the same side? Or are they separate and competing forces.

A They may align at some point, but they are separate and competing forces.

20 1:12:28 Q Around Christmas time, you said the Queen recorded a video to humanity saying it was the last Christmas and they were sorry but did what was necessary to preserve themselves. What was she referring to?

A Planet X. Niribu. But then it stopped or was stopped and put on the emergency ray. Most of the world's powers have freaked out. There you go. As usual we are the last to find out.

21 1:13:30 Q Do you know the significance of O Negative blood types? I've read a lot already. I'm interested in regard to ascension or healing.

A I've had stuff said to me in the past. It is off world. That much I do know. How significant it is, I don't know. O is a universal donor, even though it can't take another blood type. It's pretty cool. It originally came from off world, but is not regressive or Reptilian. Many different human species are O negative off world. So if you are O negative, you're an alien. Welcome to the party!

22 1:15:42 Q Are these familiar? 'King-go Baba, Green Kingo, Anuna, Minio... Anything?

A Nothing.

23 1:16:30 Q You often look over to your left. Is someone there with you?

A There's a window. People walk by. They have no clue. Some people do stop and they try to listen. It's not a spirit guide.

24 1:17:35 Q There is a video on 'YouTube' from June 9th that shows a moonlight structure in the skies north of Alaska. Is this the celestial body you are talking about? Are they continuing with starting contact protocols with earth?

A To the 2nd part, yes. Where those are, I do not know. There is a lot of conversation. I don't know how much more I'll be briefed on that anyway. Earth is complicated.

You want to empower, but you don't want to create too much fear from the bloodline reeking havoc. So it's tricky. As far as this video from June 9th I don't know, as I haven't seen it.

25 1:18:49 Q What do you mean 'full court press' is about to be unleashed?

A Terrorism. They will create earth changes, financial crises. All the things they control that we see as our daily life. What they control and manipulate. What they do is they start tweaking these things to make people uncomfortable, and then people get uncomfortable they go into fear and in anger lash out and cause destruction. This ultimately leads to very negative field. That's what they thrive on. It empowers them. I could have said 'the shit's going to hit the fan.'

26 1:20:10 Q Is it allowed by a universal principle for a higher being to trick a lower being? Is that still within the bounds of free will?

A No. That's not cool. That's why we're in this predicament and why there's so many cops in the solar system at this time. Because these shackles are exactly what they did. They came in with all this 'spiritual technology' and created an elaborate twisting of truth and hoax to fool our planetary representatives into taking a position of checkmate. They knew what they exactly were doing these regressive groups. It was an outright manipulation.

27 1:21:45 Q What do you know about the so-called 'kill shot' predicted with the solar flare.

A That's not where we are going now.

28 1:22:14 Q With the Niribu situation, is the sun's twin also involved in any of the earth change activity? Or is it not a significant part of the current events?

A It's very significant part of current events. The dwarf star is what Niribu rotates around. That's the sun's stepsister. That's the 2nd sun. Niribu, the Anunnaki, their planets, their moons revolve around the dwarf star. It's not a star. There are seven very large planetary bodies that are in the tail of it. We are talking about a solar system that is passing through our solar system. That's why it gets pretty sketchy. And it has, in the past.

If you were on previous calls, there are scientists who have taken the passing of this dwarf star/solar system/the earth's twin, and every time it's passed through here, there have been extinction level events on earth. Probably, on other planets as well, but we are not there to take those readings to do the archaeology. So we don't know. But here on earth, the timelines absolutely coincide. Something to research.

29 1:24:23 Q When you referred to 'the powers that be', can you be more specific about who they are? Anunnaki? Reptilians? Archons etc.? Can you explain how they are related and structurally organised? Who is at the top of the pyramid, who is in the middle and lower end? Who is in charge? What's the structure of the enemy?

A The structure of the enemy is basically a committee of all of the above. But there is in fact a 'pecking order'. Extra-terrestrials sit on the council. They are basically calling the shots. The 'minions', which is a very good analogy, are half-breeds and then humans. There are 3 or 4 levels.

Humans are at the very bottom. But they will do anything for their masters, because if they don't, not only they will die, but also their entire family will die. The entire bloodline etc. That's how it works. But of course they agreed to do this in the first place and they are given their wealth and earthly power, but are essentially a slave to this group.

30 1:25:56 Q Are there still many exchange programmes going on between humans and extra-terrestrials?

A No. Not right now. I know there are some others saying that, but to my knowledge, this is absolutely not happening and it is not being allowed to happen.

31 1:26:38 Q Which force influences the increasing number of mass murderers to do what they do? How do we protect ourselves?

A That's a great question. I don't believe there is one simple answer to it. I don't know how to answer it without getting into trouble. Look up 'mind control', 'pharmaceuticals', and 'religious dogma'. See them as interconnected.

32 1:28:10 Q In one of your old videos, I detected an accent that you no longer have. Where were you born and how long have you lived in the US? You also mentioned you were originally contacted in North County South Diego. Where did it take place?

A I was born in upstate New York. I don't know where I came from. There was speculation about the voice recording. The first contact was Upstate Michigan. I never said it was South Diego.

33 1:29:00 Q What do you know about the Lyrans?

A The original seeded human civilisation in our galaxy. Very well developed when they were first seeded in our galaxy. My understanding is that they journeyed from a galaxy that was imploding. It was going into a black hole. So they migrated out all the civilisations in that particular galaxy that were migrating out in different directions.

The founders 'the Patal', helped give them directions to find a habitable system. If there were any other assistance than that, I'm not aware of it. Some call the 'Patal' founders.

They came fully formed. Their civilisation was established before they got here. It was a case of taking it out of mother ships and putting it out on the planet and developing it on the surface. It was a great deal of work. They were remarkably successful. There was a competing fraction here that did not understand humans. For some reason they saw the ingenuity of humans as a threat.

The first physical encounters didn't go well at all. My understanding is that the Reptilian races completely overreacted. Then in response to this, the Lyrans overreacted and it turned into a real mess. This lasted 10,000 years. But it forced change.

It forced the colonisation of our entire galaxy by multiple races. So you can look at it as a terrible issue, but the outcome of it was that humanity migrated to all different parts of the galaxies and they created their own civilisations with their own languages and technologies.

Their DNA changed with their environment, which gives us diversity. But because of the ingenuity of humanity and different spiritual technologies, teachings and perspectives, it has benefited everyone now. This is in the sense that humanity in this galaxy is very well versed in the benefits of diversity, and the value that all races can bring to the table. As long as they are not hostile, this is an incredibly positive experience.

We still have a few bad apples. They dug their own grave by backing themselves into a corner by refusing to participate in a positive manner. So they are being dealt with because everybody's done and sick of it.

34 1:34:31 Q How is that book of yours coming along? The Adventures of Captain Denar. Will that see the light of day as a book or TV series?

A I don't know. Let's leave it at that for now.
